

Casa Principessa

A Restored Italian Farmhouse

EATING IN AT CASA PRINCIPESSA

The best Italian meals are prepared at home, using local expertise and local products.

Why not let Elide and Luana come to Casa Principessa and show you what we mean!!

Elide and Luana are part of the Bruni family. The family, with a long tradition of excellent cuisine, live in the tiny village of Garulla. Both Elide and Luana were born and bred in this beautiful village that is situated 800m above sea level at the foot of the Sibillini Mountains. Here they grow their own organic produce and make their own salami, sausages, prosciutto and cheese.

Their uncle, Benito Bruni, has had a distinguished career as a professional chef. He opened the first Italian restaurant in Newcastle, England – a successful venture he operated for 25 years before returning to Garulla to care for his parents.

Elide and Luana will come to Casa Principessa, prepare a four course dinner, wait table and clean up afterwards. A fabulous night in!!

This service is available any night in June, July and August and on Saturday evenings other times of the year.

Charges are as follows:

- ingredients for the dinner will be charged to you at cost – for up to 10 people this could be approx E50-E70 (depending on the menu)
- a total of E120 for the services of Elide and Adriana (up to 10 people)

..... so for just under E200 you could have dinner provided for up to 10 people.

If you would like to use this service please call Christine Bruni on 0733 658451.

The menu that Elide and Luana offer is extensive, flexible and based on local Marchiagiana cuisine. They will talk to you and settle on a menu of your choice. But, as an example, here are some of things you could have.
